The Gold bearing Mountains.

Since the publication of our article in relation to the Gold-bearing Quartz of California, stating the recent investigations and tests which have been made of the productiveness of samples of several of its veins, Dr. Wiertzbicki has called our attention to an article published by him in the Alta California of 31st August last, and forming part of a forthcoming volume which he proposes soon to publish. Dr. Wiertzbicki regards his article as covering either partially or wholly the facts set forth by us as being information new to ourselves at least, and supposed by us to be new to our readers. As the subject is one of great interest and destined to attract a large share of public attention, we deem it proper as a matter of justice to Dr. Wiertzbicki, and at his request, to re publish in our columns that portion of his article, which gives his views of the Gold bearing region. Our readers will then be enabled to judge for themselves how far this previous publication of Dr. Wiertzbicki embodies the same information and covers the same ground with the article published by us. After a general description of the geographical configuration of the western slope of the Sierra Vevada and the valley at its base, Dr. Wiertybicki's article proceeds as follows:

As these hills rise, vegetation becomes scantier. The range of mountains in which gold is found is distinguished by a uniformity of its vegetable kingdom, which is neither meagre nor very abundant. The oak predominates here, only now and then relieved by several varieties of the pine family. As the gold disappears, the reign of the pine and the granite extends The depositories of gold look universally more smiling to the beholder than their barren neighbors; the former always have the figure described by the line of beauty, viz: the curved line, be they ever so precipitous as they frequently are; a distinction never to be lost sight of. The extent of these auriferous hills is greater than the public know or imagine, but not in the direction it is supposed. They extend beyond the Sacramento and even San Joaquin, northwest of the former and southwest of the latter, bending round towards the sea coast. Nay, the same formation, with more or less difference, runs along the whole Pacific shores till it is lost in the southern portion of the Chilian republic, but gold has not been, nor probably will be found anywhere in equal abundance, as in Upper California. This abundance is much, however, exaggerated by the heated imagination of the public. It is not in the nature of placer gold to be durable long. A very few years, when there will be many arms at work, will exhaust it: its origin is the guaranteed of this fact. The breadth of this auriferous region limits itself within the lines running north and south from forty to sixty miles from the ridge of the Sierra Nevada; and on the west, as the hills begin to soften into the plains.

At some remote period in the history of the globe, the same internal convulsions that heaved up the Sierra Nevada, have also upheaved the auriferous hills, which at first presented a naked surface to the atmospheric changes, by the influences of which, the quartz constantly breaking up, left free the precious metal on its surface. In the progress of time, the same atmospheric influences caused to accumulate on these hills soil which grew deeper with every decay of vegetation till it grew strong enough to support the majestic oak. The freed particles of gold thus became covered by the soil and mixed up with it, and the process of the separation of the metal from the stone was arrested. How gold was injected into the veins of quartz is more than we can say, but the fact that it was so in a liquid state, is beyond question, as we see it adapt itself to the sides of the stone in all imaginable forms, from the finest filament to the largest lump ever found, with a most varied indented surface, filling up, completely, the crack of the stone, always tending to a rounded tear-like appearance, as is the case with all melting substances. When freed, external friction of course modifies its appearance more or less; hence we find it in rivers particularly, in fine flakes, but when it is in larger bulk, it puts on plate-like appearance as if it were hammered out by the hands of an artizan—as really it is by the frequently enormous weight of stones under which it is deposited. Water, that universal carrier, washing the sides of the hills, brought the gold from their surface into the ravines and rivers, to which its own whignt facilitated the process.

According to the strength of the current of water, the weight of the particles of gold, and the obstacles in the way, it is deposited in one or another spot, the lighter particles of course floating away the farthest from their original bed. As this process of gold deposition has taken place in some remote period of the earth's existence, hence we find all these deposits, generally speaking, covered with greater or smaller depth of soil, sand, gravel and stones. Strictly speaking, gold does not belong to the rivers, it was washed into them from the hills; hence it is useless to look for gold at the head of these streams, when the neighboring hills are not of the auriferous nature; and we find this fact corroborated by our personal examination of the heads of the streams of the gold region. The same rule holds good, for the same reasons, in regard to the lower portion of a gold carrying stream, except that it is limited by the fact that light particles of gold may be deposited a considerable distance below their original source.

The mode of deposit being made clear, it will be equally clear that it is not on every spot in this very auriferous region that we must look for gold, which fact experience proves to be true; or at least, it is not on every spot that we can find enough of it to make it an object to bestow our labor on it. Hence it equally follows the limitation of the quantity of gold to be expected from the mines as a general aggregate, however rich they may prove. * *

When this gold mania ceases to rage, individuals will abandon the mines; and then there will be a good opportunity for companies with heavy capital to step in; there will be enough of profitable work for them; and it is then that the country will enter on a career of real progress, and not till then. Such companies, with superior mechanical facilities to do much labor, in a short space, will be enabled to go over the whole mineral field, although already dug over by individuals, and reap yet a rich reward of their efforts. And when there will be no more gold washing to be done, then a new era in the mining of the country will commence—we mean a regular system of mining by sinking shafts into the very bowels of the rocks will be entered upon. Spots for this system of mining are to be found in the auriferous region.

Latest from Feather River.

We are again indebted to Mr. Dunbar for the following, from the correspondence of the Merchants' Exchange:

"VERNON, November 30, 1849.

* * * * * * The trade between this place and Deer creek, Bear creek, and Yuba river, has been uninterrupted during the heavy rains that have prevailed for some days past, and the general business of the place is increasing with great rapidity. Six large frame stores, and one large three story hotel, are in process of erection.

The schooner Capt. Lincoln, belonging to the Quartermaster's Department, U. S. A., is now here, discharging stores for the troops at Bear creek. All kinds of provisions, and every description of heavy, thick clothing, sell quick at high prices. Owing to the scarcity of provisions, many of the miners are leaving for the towns; and this place is crowded. The recent pleasant weather has so improved the roads that the remotest points will soon be supplied with provisions.

The Rover arrived this morning with a valuable cargo, and reports thirty-two boats between this and Sacramento, loaded with merchandise."

The following from North Fork gives the latest advices from that region:

"CONDEMNED BAR, Nov. 26, '49.

The rain commenced here the 1st of November, and has continued, with little interruption, up to this time. They have had still more rain higher up the country. Provisions of all kinds are very scarce and high. Many wagons on the way to this place with supplies, are missed, and unless there is a change in the weather, will not reach here this winter. Many are leaving for Sacramento and San Francisco."

The following is per "J. B. Gager," from the Sandwich Islands, dated

"LAHAINA, November 10, '49.

* * * * * There are about fifty whalers here for supplies, and among them one cargo of sperm oil. No vessels bound for San Francisco, except the J. B. Gager. Produce of every description is plenty and cheap. Potatoes, $3 per bushel."

The Nicaragua Ship Canal.

The New York Evening Post, of October 11th, publishes the Nicaragua contract entire, and comments on the enterprise it contemplates as follows:

By the terms of the contract, the canal must be opened for navigation within twelve years after the contract is ratified. That it will be completed within that time, we have no doubt. It must be. The world requires it. The obstacles to its accomplishment are less formidable than those which were overcome in constructing the Erie canal. The right of way here is conceded, there it was contested almost to bloodshed—the public sentiment of Nicaragua in favor of the improvement is esthusiastic; the Erie canal had to contend with the bitterest sectional prejudices, and a powerful political opposition.

Then, the State of New York was poor, and the expense of a great public work weighed heavy upon the people; now, the amount necessary to build a ship canal to the Pacific can be raised without an effort, and spared without the cost of a single comfort to any one, the moment the rights and privileges of the stockholders are properly secured by the contracting parties; labor in New York was then worth from six shillings to a dollar a day, in Nicaragua it now commands only one shilling a day, and would not rise by the increase of demand to more than two or three. The best draft horses may be had for twenty dollars, and supported for little or nothing—the finest oxen are sold at ten dollars a yoke, and can feed themselves.

The bed of the canal lies through a level country, which yields every variety of tropical fruits, almost without culture, where the sugar cane requires to be planted but once in ten years, and where the expense of feeding and clothing a man is less for a whole year, than it is in the rude climate of the north for a single month. Over 200,000 acres of this land, not inferior in quality to the best in Nicaragua, is to be granted to the company by the charter. with every requisite power of alienation and sale. It will furnish a refuge and a prosperous home to thousands of emigrants from the United States and Europe, where they may, by their labor on the canal, purchase for themselves the finest farms in the world, and by that very labor contribute, in the most direct and possible way, to its value. There is no slavery allowed in Nicaragua, and probably never will be. A treaty has just been agreed upon between the diplomatic representatives of Nicaragua and the United States at Leon, which, we understand, guaranties the validity of the contract of the Nicaraguans with the Atlantic and Pacific Canal company. There is nothing to prevent, but everything to encourage, this great enterprise; and we look, therefore, upon its consummation, within twelve years as an event beyond the reach of contingencies.

CITY ITEMS.

REPORTED FOR THE NEWS, BY "BOSTON."

PUBLIC MEETING.—We observe that a call for a public meeting, to provide for destitute persons, who have already, or who may hereafter, arrive on our shores, is being circulated for signatures. The paper has already several hundred signatures of the first men in our city. It is proposed that the meeting shall be holden at the Haley House, on Friday, the 7th instant, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

COMFORTABLE.—The news-room of the Merchants' Exchange is about the most comfortable place to spend an evening that there is in town. The room is well lighted and warmed, and has papers of the latest dates from the United States and Europe. Some place, other than the drinking houses, where strangers and citizens could spend an evening, has long been needed.

HALEY HOUSE.— This establisement was thrown open to the public on Saturday last. The building is one of the most substantial in the city, and is finished outside and inside in the most thorough and tasteful manner.

Harry Riell — or as he is more familiarly known in New York, "the man who smokes in the omnibus" was the presiding genius at the bar on the occasion, and seems to be the "fast man" of the establishment.

ROBBERY.—Some man living in a tent on Clark's Point, had his trunk broken open Tuesday night and robbed of $500. Robberies are getting so frequent of late, that we fear the people will adopt the severe custom, formerly so successful here in detering from crime of "hanging for stealing."

We perceive that some of the gambling houses are still kept open on the Sabbath, in violation of the ordinance of the City Council.

Edward Bagley and Philip Jackson were arraigned on a charge of burglary and larceny. There not being sufficient "come-at-able" testimony, they were committed for another day.

Joseph Downing brought up for larceny, was examined and committed for further testimony.

A pretty little fight occurred on Clark's Point, Tuesday, between some Chinese and Americans. The Chinese got a pretty good "hammering," and entered a complaint with the Alcalde. The case was however, dismissed for want of testimony.

There is quite an interesting case before Judge Almond, which we shall report in our next paper.

Frederika Bremer, the charming Swedish authoress, will visit New York, in the next steamer from Europe, and has promised to be the guest of Mr. Downing, the horticulturist, at Newburg. A delightful conjunction of the flowers of nature, with the cultivated beauties of a pure heart.—[N. York Express.

Public Meeting.

Pursuant to previous notice, a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Sacramento District was held in front of the City Hotel in the City of Sacramento, when on motion, the HON. . C. HASTINGS was called to the Chair, and J. S. Fowler was appointed Secretary.

The Chair having explained the object of the meeting. Upon call COL. JAMES C. ZABRISKIE came forward and addressed the meeting at length on the great interest of the Sacramento District. and of the importance of its being immediately represented on the floor of Congress. At the conclusion of Col. Zabriskie's speech, Col. Grant, of Vernon, introduced the following preamble and resolutions which were adopted, unanimously, viz:

Whereas, With the view of promoting the common unity and welfare and of preventing the undue influence of local prejudices in the National Councils, it has long been the settled policy of the Government and people of the United States, to give to each section and local interest in the various States, such an apportionment of representation in Congress, as its position and numerical strength have entitled it to receive.

And whereas, While the Sacramento District is willing and will cheerfully accord to every other section of our new Commonwealth, the benefits of just and impartial legislation, in a spirit of fraternal community and with a due regard to the good of all, our citizens feel it alike a duty of patriotism and of interest to insist, respectfully but earnestly, that the same rule on the part of other sections be adopted towards ourselves.—And whereas, the great and increasing population and commercial relations of the Sacramento Valley, with its vast and ever developing mineral resources, require a representative in the Senate of the United States, who, by weight and dignity of personal character, legislative experience and practical wisdom, shall be enabled to enlist the fostering care of Congress in the establishment of Mints and Custom Houses, the improvement of the navigation of our rivers, and a just and impartial disposition of the public domain within our limits.

It is Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in the Legislature of California, be requested to use all honorable means to secure the election to the Senate of the United States, of some citizen of the SACRAMENTO DISTRICT, whose character and qualifications shall, in their judgment, render him worthy a position so responsible and exalted.

Resolved, That in asking our bretheren in other portions of the State for a fair share of representation in Congress, we distinctly disavow all intention to draw sectional lines, or to promote any peculiar interest of our own at the expense of the interests of others, desiring only to start fairly in the race for prosperity in which, we doubt not, all will ultimately succeed.

After the adoption of the foregoing Resolutions, the same was on motion of Dr. Gale of Yuba River, ordered to be printed in the newspapers of Sacramento City and San Francisco. On motion the meeting adjourned.

S. C. HASTINGS, Chairman.
J. S. Fowler, Sec.

EXPORTS OF LUMBER TO CALIFORNIA AND SOUTH AMERICA.—The discovery of the golden resources of California, and the conseqnent rush of emigrants from the whole Atlantic Coasts and in fact from all parts of the world, has opened a market for almost every kind of merchandize, which our enterprising merchants have been among the foremost to enter. At first, goods of almost every conceivable kind, some of which had lain for years upon the shelves and in the warehouses of their owners, were hurriedly packed up and shipped for that distant region, with the expectation, that according to the prices which such articles were selling at, they would bring their "weight in gold." Some of these bright anticipations were almost if not quite realized, while in other cases the enterprise has proved but a sorry speculation to those who embarked in it. Of late, however, the principle articles which have been shipped from this port have been lumber, and all the material used in the construction of dwellings, stores, &c The quantity of these articles which has gone forward has been very large, and a great amount is still going,—several of the vessels now up at this port for San Francisco being chiefly freighted with it The following table, which we find in the Shipping List, gives the amount which has been shipped from this port since the 1st of December, to California and South America, the most of the latter being destined for the former place:

Lumber, M. feet	11,248½
" pieces	73,485
Shingles, M.	4,285½
" bdls.	249
Laths, M.	89
" bdls.	50
Clapboards, M.	183½
" bdls.	946
Houses and Frames	219
Shingles and Pickets, M.	182
Scantlings, pcs	1,200
Frames, pcs	1,875
Pickets, pcs	28,875

It is probable that for a few months to come the quantity of building materials which will be shipped to California will not fall behind that which has already been sent forward. The above figures give only that which has been shipped from this port. During the last ten or twelve weeks several vessels have cleared at this and other Northern ports for Bangor, to load lumber for California, and we hear of several vessels being fitted out from these ports with like cargoes. The total amount exported, from the Atlantic States, during the present year, could it be ascertained, would doubtless fall little short of forty million feet.—Boston Journal, Oct. 1st,

THE HUDSON BAY COMPANY.—The "Western Journal," a monthly magazine published at St. Louis, contains an elaborate and interesting article on the American fur trade, including a sketch of the Hudson Bay Company, one of the most powerful monopolies in existence. We compile from this article the following facts in relation to this company.

The concerns of the Hudson Bay Company are managed by a Governor, Deputy Governor, and a Committee of Directors, established in London. Its affairs are enveloped in the most profound secrecy. The reports required to be made to the government, are written with studied brevity and caution, and contain only what is absolutely required. This policy, which originates in apprehension of rivalry, and the dread of the consequences to themselves of a full exposure of their interior regulations and conduct to their employees and the Indian tribes, has resulted in the entire suppression of a multitude of facts, important to science at large, and especially to geographical knowledge.

The company has a resident Governor in America to superintend the various posts. Each interior fort or trading post has a commandant and a clerk, and as many traders as is neecssary to carry the goods into the Indian villages, and bring in the furs, and as many voyageurs or hands, as are required to transport the goods to the various points where their trade is carried on. Strict discipline and regularity are maintained, and civil and criminal affairs are managed by the tribunals of the company.

The company have not far from one hundred posts, dotted over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The most northern is situated on the Mackensie river, within the Arctic circle, and is called fort Good Hope. These forts are merely stockades, with little wooden bastions at the corners, capable of holding a travelling party of thirty or forty persons. Their unrivalled intercourse with the Indians has given the company so complete a control over them, that for purposes of traffic and safety these forts never need, and rarely have more than four or five tenants.

In 1844, the company exported from the whole of their possessions 433,398 skins, valued at about $800.000. The value of the importations of goods during the same time was about $200,000 The whole number of persons in the employment of the company, in 1845, was 1212. If we rate the salaries and wages of these persons at $150,000, the profits of the company will be $450.000, less the cost of transporting the goods to and from America and Europe. These statistics are derived from the reports of the company, and the value of the exports is believed to be greater than is here represented.

Since the Hudson Bay Company has enjoyed the exclusive privilege of trading with the Indian tribes in the British dominions, they have certainly proved themselves wise and prudent administrators, having established schools for the instruction of natives and half-breed Indians, at their posts, and given every facility and encouragement to missionaries. In the main, the influence of the company, which is great, has been exercised beneficially to the Indians. They have repressed their vindictive wars, given them adequate motives to exert themselves for a support, substituted the implements and many of the comforts of civilization for the rude inventions of barbarism, and in many other ways materially ameliorated their condition.

NEW ERA IN I ON.—There has just gone into operation, at Booneton, N. J., a Triple Chamber, the invention of Mr. S S. Salters, of Newark, into the upper chamber of which good ore (any which does not turn out a great deal of slag) and anthracite coal, pulverised and mixed, are placed, and, fire being applied, the coal is consumed and the ore melted; whereupon it is allowed to descend into the next chamber, and thence into the next, (but not exposed to the air at any time.) and finally drawn off at the bottom, fully transformed into malleable (wrought) iron or blooms, ready to be rolled or hammered as may be desired. It is asserted by the patentees that good wrought iron, such as would now command $45 in this market, can be manufactured by this process at $30 per ton.—[N. Y. Tribune.

RAILROAD TO THE PACIFIC.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in New Orleans on the evening of the 5th October, for the purpose of taking into consideration the project of uniting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, by means of a railroad.

The meeting expressed itself in favor of the Tehuantepec route and passed a series of resolutions embodying its sentiments. The delegates from the State to the Memphis Convention were to be instructed to bring the route under the Convention's consideration. The following resolution passed by the meeting is in the right spirit:

Resolved, That we are in favor of the construction of a railroad to the Pacific entirely within the territories of the United States, if, upon examination and survey such road shall be ascertained to be practicable; and that we will heartily aid, so far as our efforts may avail, in the support and prosecution of such an undertaking, whatever may be the route which shall be finally determined upon.—[N. CIRCULAR TO COLLECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS OF THE CUSTOMS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
July 26th, 1849.

It is represented to this Department, that in some of the ports of the United States, the erroneous practice prevails of admitting the importation of gin and other distilled spirits, in cases or vessels of less capacity than ninety gallons.

By the provision of the 103d section of the general collection act of 2d March, 1799, the importation of any distilled spirits (arrack and sweet cordials accepted) unless in casks or vessels of the capacity of 90 gallons wine measure, and upwards, subjects the said spirits to forfeiture, together with the ship or vessel in which it is imported. The act of 2d March, 1827, makes a farther exception, as it relates to brandy, admitting that article in casks of a capacity not less than fifteen gallons; but with this single modification, the prohibiiory provision of the act of 1799 above cited, remains unrepealed, and must therefore be strictly enforced.

It is due to the importers within those collection districts in which the erroneous practice referred to has existed, that they be immediately apprised, by a public notice from the Collector's Office, of the views of this Department in regard to importations of the article in question.

CAUTION.—Whereas, one J. A. Sutter has published a notice, in which he claims title to the land on the east bank of the Sacramento river, between the Feather river and the American Fork, I hereby notify the public that I am the only legal owner of the said land, under a warranty deed from J. A. Sutter himself, dated Aug. 10, 1843; and I therefore caution all persons that no legal title can be acquired to the same, or to any portion thereof, except through me. Justice to myself requires me to add that I shall hold the said J. A. Sutter legally responsible, both for the libel on my character, and the slander of my title, which his notice contains; and that if its publication is the result of a conspiracy to defraud me of my property, I shall take care that the offenders be brought to justice as soon as a criminal court before which they can be tried, is legally organized in this territory.

Any person desiring to satisfy himself of my title to the above land, is invited to call on W. H. Tiffany, at Boston, or on the undersigned, at his office, sacramento street, san Francisco. Hiram Grimes

LOTS FOR SALE in the city of south San Francisco, offering the greatest inducements to persons recently arrived, who are desirous of locating themselves with superior advantages. The city of south san Francisco is situated two miles south of the city of san Francisco, immediately on the bay, having every advantage for the shipping, and is supplied with wholesome water in great abundance. A stream of sufficient quantity to supply both cities and all the shipping that ever may lay in their harbors, forms the northern boundaries of this place—is quite accessible and is about being conducted into reservoirs for that purpose. The harbor is more securely protected from the winds than the harbor of san Francisco, and ships of the heaviest burthen may at all times of the tide lay within a boat's length of the land at many points, and quite close along the whole front of the city, affording the best facilities to discharge cargo. The soil is free of dust, and is of a rich clay nature. There are extensive stone quarries, and springs of pure running water are in many places. The surrounding scenery is highly picturesque, and a more pleasant place for residences, or a more convenient place for business is not to be found on the bay. The only good road from the city of san Francisco to the Pueblo of san Jose passes through south san Francisco, crossing the mouth of Mission creek and the mouth of the stream of fresh water already alluded to On this road you travel along a beautiful valley of firm grass land to the puertesuelo, a distance of less than two miles. Persons desirous of purchasing lots, which will wholly equal in value those of the City of San Francisco and provide for themselves residences on moderate and easy terms can do so by calling at the office of the undersigned in Clay st., where full particulars will be given them. Agent for the Proprietors.

RARE CHANCE for investment of capital for business men. Business calling the subscriber to the United States, he offers the following most desirable property for sale.

The Buena Vista Rancho, situated on Jackson creek between Dry creek and the Mockelmna river, on the main road leading from Sutter and Sacramento river, to the Mockelmna, Stanislaus, Stockton, and the San Joaquin. On the ranch there is two large new corrals, large log buildings, three hundred head of beef cattle, three wagons and teams, horses, pack mules, saddles, etc. A large lot of provisions, mining goods, and Indian trade. This rancho is one of the most important trading posts in the mining district; the ranch is well supplied with water and grass; several hundred head of horses are pastured on the place, belonging to the miners, and the trade with miners and the Indians is very extensive; the roads from Sutter, Sacramento city and Stockton, are very superior. The above offers a rare opportunity for business men to invest capital; this trading post has been established over twelve months, and the most central post in the mines. For further particulars apply to T. B. Winston, Esq., san Francisco; Geo. McKinstrey, Jr. Esq. town of Sutter, or W. H. DIGGES, on the ranch.
Buena Vista, Oct. 30, '49. xxix cA

TOWN OF BOSTON.—Lots at the town of Boston, beautifully situated at the junction of the American Fork and Sacramento rivers, are now offered for sale. The town of Boston is only a few hundred yards above Sutter's Embarcadero, on the north side of the American Fork, and in the immediate vicinity of the gold mines, and from its situation possesses superior advantages for business purposes. The land which forms the site of the town is twelve feet above the highest water mark, and the river is twenty-three feet in depth at the banks. It is believed that no place offers greater inducements for investments than this town, as in addition to the above mentioned advantages it has a fine climate, good soil, with an abundance of excellent water, and is free from inundation at all seasons. The town has been surveyed by Mr. J. Halls, and laid out in a convenient manner, and a plan of it can be seen, and any other information relating to it obtained on application to

PACIFIC RAILROAD ROUTE.—The N. Orleans Picayune, in noticing the call for a Pacific road convention, to be held at Memphis, expresses its views, with regard to the subject, as follows:

The wish may be father to the thought, but we have long entertained an idea that the best line of road to the Pacific must have one terminus upon the Gulf of Mexico. Every book of travel, every report of engineers, which has fallen into our hands has confirmed us in this opinion. The Memphis convention may elicit a vast body of facts bearing upon the point. Mr. Benton's plan of a National Road from Western Missouri, does not, in the least, conflict with the project of a railroad in a much more southern latitude. In truth, Mr. Benton's road may be regarded as the quietus to Whitney's scheme, and possesses such intrinsic propriety as the proper connecting link with Oregon and California, that we should be surprised if it do not receive the sanction of Congress. That road once authorised, the attention of all who favor the construction of a railroad will be concentrated upon a southern route. The people of Arkansas very naturally favor a route which may cross their State, and so of Texas. Whatever plan ultimately may prevail, this city is to be largely benefitted, as being the grand entrepot of the commerce of the Mississippi valley and the Gulf of Mexico.

THE UPAS TREE.—Such a tree certainly does exist in Java; but the tales that are told of its poisoning the air for hundreds of yards round, so that birds dare not approach it, that vegetation is destroyed beneath its branches, and that man cannot come near it with impunity, are perfectly ridiculous. To prove their absurdity, a traveller climbed up a upas tree and passed two hours in its branches, where he took his lunch and smoked a cigar. The tree, however, does contain poison, and the natives extract the sap, with which they rub their spears and kriss blades. Wounds inflicted with blades thus annointed, are mortal. Such is believed to be the origin of the many fabulous stories that have passed from hand to hand, and from generation to generation, about the upas tree of Java.

The number of English troops at present serving in Hindostan, amounts to about 20,000 men. The East India Company's forces consist of 8000 infantry, and 4000 artillery. The Native troops consist of 10,000 cavalry, 130,000 infantry, and 8000 artillery, and the irregular forces amount to 7000 cavalry, and 17,000 infantry. The Indian army may therefore be computed at 200,000 men.

There are 1555 newspapers in the United States, and but 1801 in the whole world beside.

CITY SURVEYOR'S OFFICE, Laffan's Building, Portsmouth square. The undersigned respectfully gives notice that having commenced the re-survey of the city, based upon the original survey, (made by Jasper O'Farrell, S. E.,) he is prepared to give the accurate location of any lot embraced in the survey, and official certificate thereof. All surveys made by him are duly recorded in the office, and become part of the records of the city. He is also bound, by the ordinance of the town council, as follows: "sec. 4. Be it further ordained, That so soon as the surveyor has obtained the lineations of such streets, squares and lots as are now built, building, or about being built on, he shall be bound to lodge information to the Prefect, or Alcalde, against any person or persons who shall hereafter construct or increase any building, wall, or enclosure, in front of any street, square, or other public way, without having first applied to him (the city surveyor) to receive the lineations.

IN REPLY to a card, published in the Alta California, of 22d instant, we will, at this time, merely say that the writers of that are mistaken in supposing we design to injure them; but we wished, in justice to ourselves, to correct a wrong impression that their flag was calculated to give to the public. We also deny that there was anything "malicious" in the "character" of our article of the 17th instant, but merely a desire to assert our rights, which we shall ever maintain. But if they are disposed to treat it as such, we say "lay on," etc., and we will hereafter answer "A Card" more fully, and give whatever else may emanate from them such attention as it may merit.

THE HOSPITAL OF SAN FRANCISCO.
W. H. STIVERS, M. D. Resident Physician.
Main entrance on the east or lower side of Stockton street, between Clay and Sacramento streets, south-west of and near the Post Office.

THIS establishment is composed of an extensive range of buildings recently erected, and formerly, in part, occupied for a Hospital by our fellow-citizen Dr. Melhado. Its arrangements are, in all respects, most commodious; on a scale, indeed, suited to the various and rapidly increasing wants of both citizens and strangers. The position is one of the best that could be chosen—elevated, healthy, and easy of access, with excellent water, and commanding a fine view of the bay. There is also attached to the premises an elegantly fitted up Bathing House, where cold, warm, hot and medicated baths may be had, at all hours. The Baths for the use of the public are entirely SEPARATE and DISTINCT from those devoted to patients
The Hospital of san Francisco is the FIRST, and, in fact, the ONLY Institution established on the Pacific coast, on a broad, liberal and sure foundation. It is a refuge for the sick—a home for the invalid, where comfortable quarters, good nursing, watchful medical treatment, and suitable diet will do all that human effort can do to alleviate suffering and restore to health.
The Terms are placed on the most moderate basis, being in truth, about one-third to one-sixth less than the expenses necessarily encountered by the sick, under any other arrangement.
TERMS.
1st class, one in a single room, neatly furnished, $16,00 per day.
2d class, two in a room, neatly furnished, each $10,00 per day.
3d class, in wards, neatly furnished, each $5,00 per day.
☞ In all surgical cases, and cases of Insanity, there will be an extra charge.

"OAK HALL!"
WHEREAS, some ambitious person has opened a "seven by nine" shop, near the City Hotel, with the sign of "Oak Hall," we feel it a duty we owe to the public, to him with whom the name originated and to ourselves, to state that said shop is in no way connected with the original establishment, and that we are the only House in California that has any right to make use of the name of Oak Hall, which is as much the property of the proprietor of that establishment as is the reputation he has won. As a branch of that house, we shall, from this time, take its name, and hope to merit as liberal a share of patronage from the people of California as has been extended to the house by the inhabitants of the Atlantic states.
